NUMB. 1896

MONDAY, DECEMBER 28. 1741.

Petersbourg, Dec. 1. O. S.

IT is computed, that no leſs than 30 Perſons who held conſiderable Employments, have already been committed Priſoners to the Citadel; in which Number are the Baron de Mengden, and Count Oſterman's Son in Law. The Count himſelf is a cloſe Priſoner, as is alſo the Count de Lowenwolde. There are very heinous Charges againſt the former, whoſe Conduct has been ripp'd up ever ſince the Death of Peter the Great. The Velt Marſhal de Munich is in the ſame Predicament, and no leſs than fifty Articles already drawn up againſt him. The Count Michael de Golofkin, who is unfortunately involv'd in Count Oſterman's Fate, was in a manner forc'd to enter into his Views, and into thoſe of the Prince and Princeſs of Brunſwick. It having been ſounded from all Quarters, and even from Foreign Countries, that the Ruſſians could no longer bear to be ſuch Slaves; that they look'd upon it as an Affront to have an Infant upon the Throne, who moreover ought to be conſider'd as a Foreigner; and that they ſhould deem it as a Favour from Heaven, and a Period of their Calamities, to ſee Princeſs Elizabeth on the Throne; it was in order to defeat ſuch Hopes of theirs that the Project was form'd to declare Princeſs Anne Empreſs. The Count Oſterman not only repreſented this as abſolutely neceſſary, but ſignify'd that all who ſhould refuſe their Aſſent would be liable to Suſpicions of having ill Deſigns. The Count Michael de Golofkin, who never meant ill, and who for a long Time lamented the Diſorder in which he ſaw his Country, enter'd into this Scheme, partly that he might not incur any Suſpicion, and partly in hopes that this new Settlement might be a Means of re-eſtabliſhing Things on a ſolid and durable Footing: Therefore, 'tis hop'd, this Nobleman will find a Way to come off, and that the Empreſs will have ſome Indulgence for him, in conſideration of the Fidelity and Services of the Count his Brother, who is the Empreſs's Ambaſſador to the States-General, and who has had the moſt glorious Teſtimony that can be given to the Publick of the Empreſs's Confidence in him, by the new Credentials ſhe has ſent to him; wherein her Imperial Majeſty expreſſes her Full Truſt in his Fidelity and Capacity, and deſires their High Mightineſſes to give entire Credit to every Thing that he ſhall hereafter propoſe in her Name. More Perſons are apprehended every Day, who were the Friends of the Count d'Oſterman. The Velt-Marſhal de Laſcy is arriv'd here, and has been favourably receiv'd by the Empreſs, who truſted him with the Secret of the Revolution. The Prince Czerkaski the Great Chancellor is at the Head of the chief Affairs of the Empire.

Derbent, Oct. 2. Kouli Kan, after having ſubdued all the Rebels of Dagheſtan, and executed their Leaders, is return'd homeward. He took a ſevere Revenge alſo of the Leskis their Neighbour Rebels; for after he had defeated them, he put them all to the Sword, Men, Women, and Children. He appointed a new Kan of the Lebecks, and ſent for the Head of the old Kan, which was cut off, and brought to him when he was marching back to Perſia. The Provocation he had for it was a Letter which the Kan had wrote to him, to congratulate him on the Succeſs of his Arms againſt the Mogul, in which he could not help ſhewing his Spite. For the Terms he expreſs'd himſelf in were theſe; 'I congratulate thee, O King, upon thy Victory; tho' it would have been more for thy Honour, if thou hadſt fought againſt Men, thoſe whom thou haſt defeated deſerving rather the Name of Women. Go now in purſuit of Conqueſts more worthy of a Conqueror, and ſuch as will yield thee real Glory.'

LONDON, December 14.

Yeſterday arriv'd a Mail from France with the Paris Letter of Wedneſday laſt, wherein is an Inſinuation that ſome ſudden Change is to be apprehended in the preſent Syſtem of Politicks at the Ottoman Porte in Violation of the Convention made with Ruſſia on the 9th of November laſt, becauſe it was concluded without the Intervention of France, which had ſo great a Share in the other Acts of the Treaty of Belgrade. It ſays, that General Romanzoff the Ruſſian Miniſter at the Porte writes word, that the Ambaſſador of France and the Miniſter of Sweden, have actually found Means to caſt a Suſpicion upon the Conduct of the Grand Vizir, by repreſenting to the Porte that he has been brib'd by the Courts of Ruſſia and Vienna, contrary to the true Intereſt of the Grand Signior, and that 'tis reported he will be depoſed to make way for another Vizir entirely devoted to the Intereſts of Sweden and France.

The Paris Letter adds, that ſince the Publication of an Order from the Court of Spain, that none of the Prizes taken from the Engliſh ſince the firſt of November laſt ſhall be ſold, 'tis conjectur'd that an Accommodation is near at hand between the two Powers.

Letters from Italy ſay the Spaniſh Conſul at Leghorn has given the ſtrongeſt Declarations that the Spaniards have no Deſign upon Tuſcany, tho' at the ſame time he ſignifies that his Catholick Majeſty cannot help advancing his Pretenſion to the Allodial and Perſonal Eſtate of the late Great Duke.

On the 8th Inſtant the Four States of Bohemia paid Homage to the Elector of Bavaria as King of Bohemia with great Acclamations of Joy and Proteſtations of Zeal and Fidelity. All the Saxon Forces, with ſeveral thouſand French and Bavarians, march'd the ſame Day for Moravia, to which the Prince Lobkowitz is retir'd with his Army to cover the Frontiers.

The new Empreſs of Ruſſia has order'd 200 Horſes at the proper Stages for accommodating the late Great Ducheſs with her Husband and Children in their Paſſage to Germany.

They write from Madrid, that the Marquis de Villarias is made Secretary of State, &c. in the room of the Marquis de la Compueſta deceaſed.

The Breſt Squadron is by the French King's Order return'd into that Port, after having detach'd two or three of the Ships to Liſbon.

The Toulon Squadron has been oblig'd to put into Carthagena, after having ſuffer'd ſeverely by a Storm of Thunder and Lightning which had burnt the Maſts and Rigging of many of the Ships. They were oblig'd to cut the Main-Maſt of a 70 Gun Ship by the Board. And they write from Cadiz, that a French Ship called the Juſt, with a Lading of Linen-cloth, &c. has had the Misfortune of being burnt in that Bay, to the Damage of above two hundred thouſand Livres.

Letters of the 18th O. S. from Hanover ſay, that as far as they can collect from ſome late private Advices from Petersbourg and Vienna, the Proſpect of Peace in the Empire is very diſtant, becauſe the Hungarians and other Subjects of the Queen ſeem reſolv'd at the Expence of their Lives and Fortunes to perform their Engagements for Defence of their Queen's Cauſe againſt the Multitude of her Enemies; and becauſe her Majeſty, ſo far from acquieſcing in the Scheme propoſed by the French Court for the Partition of her Dominions, is reſolv'd to maintain her Rights to the laſt Extremity.

The Town of Eger in Bohemia being ſummon'd on the 7th inſtant by a Bavarian Trumpeter to ſurrender, the Commandant deſir'd three Days time to give his Anſwer, which was refus'd, and he had a freſh Summons by another Trumpeter, after which the Town was inveſted by the Bavarians and Saxons, and 'tis ſuppos'd is by this time in their Hands.

We hear it has been reſolv'd in a Conference at Francfort, that all the Miniſters that aſſiſt in the Election of an Emperor, (which is fix'd for the 13th of January O. S.) ſhall be dreſt in the Spaniſh Habit.

Extract of a Letter from Petersburgh, of Dec. 12. N. S.

'The earneſt Deſire I have to afford you all the Satisfaction I can in relation to the late Revolution, engages me to trouble you with another long Letter, fill'd with Particulars which I fanſy you will not have ſo early from any other Quarter.

'For ſome time paſt the whole Nation has given evident Signs of their Uneaſineſs at the Management of Publick Affairs, and particularly at the placing a Child on the Throne, in order to put the Supreme Direction of Affairs in ſuch Hands as they could not have come into otherwiſe. To quell this Spirit Count Oſterman had propo'd raiſing the Princeſs of Mecklemburgh to the Imperial Throne immediately, and to have excluded the preſent reigning Empreſs from a Capacity of ſucceeding; of which Project he was ſo full, that he declar'd whoever oppos'd it ſhould be conſider'd as a Traitor. Count Michael Golofkin is thought to have come into this Scheme from an honeſt View of rendering the publick Affairs more capable of Diſpatch; but this, however, has involv'd him in Oſterman's Misfortunes, nor is it known what his Fate will be. As to Count Munich, he is certainly in a bad Way, there being no leſs than fifty Articles exhibited againſt him already, to which he is to give an immediate Anſwer. The Barons Mengden, Streſchneff, and about thirty other Foreigners, are very ſtrictly confin'd, and they talk of arreſting ſome others.

'On the other hand the Swediſh Priſoners are ſet at Liberty, and it is currently reported that her Imperial Majeſty, in a Letter to the King of Sweden, has promis'd to give him reaſonable Satisfaction as to Livonia and Finland; and as the Marquis de la Chetardie the French Ambaſſador, with the Conſent of the Court, diſpatch'd a Courier to Count Lewenhopt, we take it for granted that our firſt News from the Army will be, that a Ceſſation of Arms is proclaim'd on both Sides, and ſome ſay it has already taken place.

'As to the late Princeſs Regent and her Spouſe, they were conducted to the Houſe wherein her Imperial Majeſty formerly reſided, from whence they ſet out this Morning at four o'Clock under a good Eſcort, which is to conduct them to the Frontiers of Ruſſia. They are attended by the Sieur Hoffman, Harbinger to the Court, who received in ready Money thirty thouſand Rubles to defray their Expences; and it is ſaid has Orders to acquaint their Highneſſes at parting, that her Imperial Majeſty of her great Goodneſs hath granted them an Annuity of one hundred and fifty thouſand Rubles for the Support of their Dignity, in conſideration of their Alliance to the Imperial Family. All the Foreign Miniſters who are here, have been extremely well receiv'd by the Empreſs Elizabeth, who has aſſur'd them that her Acceſſion to the Throne of her Anceſtors ſhall no way prejudice any of the Affairs of their Maſters. In the mean time, we long to hear whether the Court of Pruſſia will really interpoſe for Count Munich or not. The Veldt Marſhal Laſcy ſeems to be the Perſon depended upon for the Conduct of the Army, but as to all Affairs of State they are freely debated in Council, where, as yet, nobody appears to have the Aſcendant. Several Perſons of Diſtinction are daily expected from Siberia; the Populace are of Opinion that they will be only exchang'd, and that other Priſoners of State will be ſent from hence, which is, however, altogether uncertain.'

Whitehall, Dec. 26. Letters from Liſbon of the 5th Inſtant give an Account of the Arrival there of his Majeſty's Ships the Bedford, Elizabeth, and Eſſex, with ſeveral Tranſports and Storeſhips for Gibraltar, and that they were preparing, together with the Rocheſter, to ſail as ſoon as poſſible, in order to join Rear Admiral Haddock. There is likewiſe Advice, that his Majeſty's Ship the Marlborough, which had been ſeparated from the reſt, is ſafely arriv'd at Gibraltar.

Laſt Week Mr. Lutwych of Middlewych in Cheſhire, the greateſt Saltmaker in thoſe Parts, was married to Miſs Sarah Kelly, Daughter of Mr. Kelly of Northwich, an agreeable Gentlewoman, with a Fortune of 5000 l.

On Friday Night laſt died at his Houſe in Groſvenor-ſquare, the Right Hon. Sir Charles Wills, one of his Majeſty's moſt Hon. Privy Council, Lieutenant General of the Ordnance, Colonel of the Firſt Regiment of Foot Guards, and Member of Parliament for Totneſs in Devonſhire.

We hear he will be ſucceeded as Colonel of the Firſt Regiment of Guards by his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland. And that General Wade will ſucceed his Royal Highneſs as Colonel of the Second Regiment, and be made Lieutenant General of the Ordnance.

'A Pamphlet hath been twice publiſh'd within this Twelve-'month, call'd, A Preſent for an Apprentice, which, on Account of its unpromiſing Title, I don't queſtion but many 'others as well as myſelf have overlook'd; ſeemingly calculated for low and unexperienc'd Life, it excited no Curioſity 'in thoſe above that Level. 'Twas therefore with not a little 'Surprize, that on dipping into it, I found ſuch a Syſtem of 'Morality and Oeconomy as Perſons of all Ranks might improve by, deliver'd in ſuch a Style, as the moſt accompliſh'd 'Readers might be delighted with: In ſhort, a Work, which 'if univerſally known, would be an univerſal Good, as containing all the Requiſites to render Mankind, honeſt, wiſe, 'ſociable, and virtuous.
